

10. Meanwhile, back in Zarahelma, King Benjamin becomes King and dies. Then King Mosiah the Second says "Hey what ever happened to those people that left with Zeniff?"

11. So he sends Ammon (not the guy that cut off arms) and 16 other men to look for them.

12. Back in the Land of Nephi, Zeniff had also died and the new King of the people was called King Limhi.

13. King Limhi's men found Ammon and his men and thought they were bad guys. They put them into prison.

14. When Ammon was finally able to speak and tell him who he was, King Limhi Rejoiced! He had hope that they could get out of bondage.

King Benjamin

If this is too confusing you can watch the YouTube video on my page.

9

The King of the Lamanites, let the people of Zeniff move into the land of Nephi. But it was all a trick. They made them their slaves, and were in bondage for many years.

