

Cut out and attach with a brad, so it can turn. Repeat a couple of time so the children can learn the scripture.

Come follow me- for Primary Invite the children to pretend to cry while you read from Psalm 30:5, "Weeping may endure for a night." Then ask them to be joyful as you read, "But joy cometh in the morning." Repeat this phrase a few times, and testify to the children that because of Jesus Christ, the sadness we feel in this life can be replaced with joy.