

President Monson's 5 dollar Miracle

Come follow Me- for Primary "Tell about an experience when you were confused, asked God for help, and received an answer. Help the children think of times when their prayers were answered. You could also share a story from the Church magazine about a child's prayer being answered."

the red crystal.org