

God will always hold
up His side of the covenant...

if we hold up
ours.

Come Follow Me- For Primary "Cut a paper heart in half, and give each half to different children. Ask them to hold up their halves to make a whole heart. Let other children take turns holding up part of the heart. Help the children compare this to promises or covenants we make with God. God will always hold up His side of the covenants if we hold up ours."
