
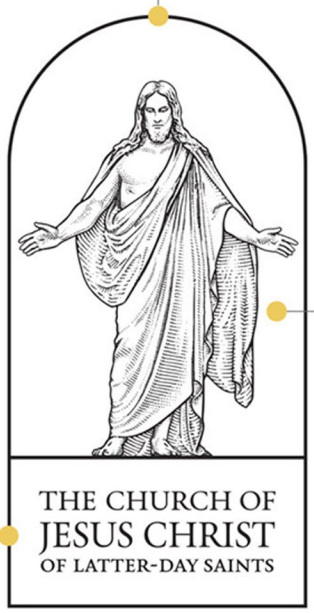
- Jesus stands under an arch as a reminder of His Resurrection. He is a living Savior who reaches out to embrace all who will come unto Him.



- The center is a representation of Thorvaldsen's marble statue, the Christus.

- The name of the Church within a rectangular shape represents a cornerstone. Jesus Christ is the chief cornerstone (Ephesians 2:20).