

Have the children put together the simple puzzle, and take it apart for the next child, have the children say the scripture with you each time.

the red crystal.org