

WHEAT

TARES

Cut out the two pictures and after explaining (from primary manual) the difference. Let them guess which one is the wheat and which one is the tare. Some of them will be tricked, because they are so similar. Explain that after time the wheat will ripen and change colors and then the difference is more noticeable. Ask the children how that might apply to choices they are making today, and to the future.