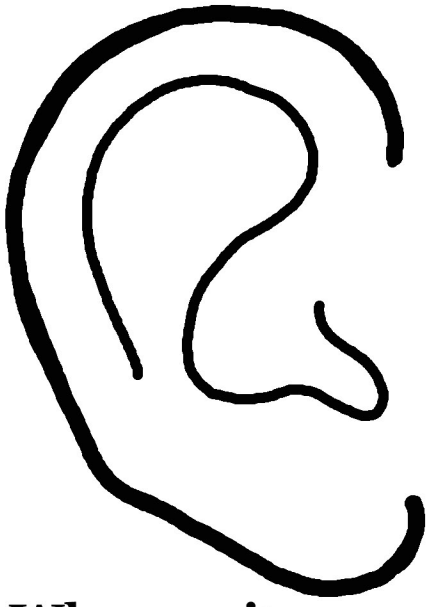
3. Hide this under the table or under the garbage can.

Read

2 Kings 23:2 to the children, and ask them to listen for what the king did with the scriptures.

After everyone has had a chance to answer the question, ask them what body part was mentioned in the scripture. Tell them to find that bady part somewhere in the classroom.

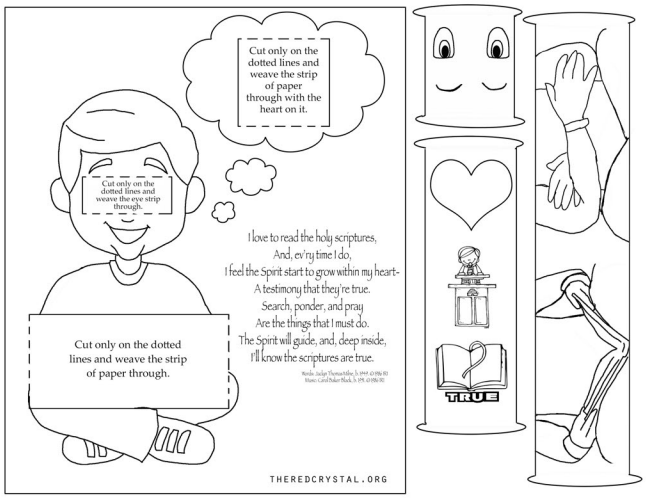
4. Hide this in a place of your choosing. Can play hot and cold or give hints.



Why was it important for everyone to hear what was written in the scriptures?

After everyone answers the question look under their chairs.

5. Under one of their chairs is the song sheet that looks like this. Assemble it before hand, sing it together as a class.



After you have sung the song ask the children what the song was talking about. If they don't know you can sing it again. Tell the children why you are glad we have the scriptures today, and let them share their feelings about the scriptures. Then tell them that these scriptures are a treasure, more precious than gold, or candy or dimonds, and they are hiding..... give them a hints(:
