

Heavenly Father answers my prayers.

Assemble the wheel. With the children's help line up the wheel correctly and help them read it. The primary manual asks that the teacher shares their experience, so you can have that filled out before showing it to the class. Or you can have each of the children have their own wheel and encourage them to fill in their story of their answered prayer. Bear your testimony that God answers prayers.

