

Come Follow Me Clue

When Describing this, 3 men named: Oliver Cowdery, David Whitmer and Martin Harris said “It is marvelous in our eyes.”

Joseph Smith called this “The most correct of any book on Earth.”

An angel named Moroni told Joseph Smith that this book had the fulness of the everlasting gospel in it.

Joseph Smith said that this is “the keystone of our religion.”

It was written to convince people “that Jesus is the Christ, the Eternal God.”

= Eternal God

It “outlines the plan of salvation” (teaches us about God and his plan for us)

The prophet (President Nelson) promised that as we study this book, “the windows of Heaven will open, and you will receive answers to your own questions and direction for your own life”

Instructions: Tell them that this year we’re going to be studying something new for our lessons. Give them the following clues to see if they can guess what the new thing is that we’ll be studying. You can print these and hide them somewhere in the room for the kids to find, or pull them out of a bowl/bag, or just read them out loud one at a time. Whatever works best for the kids you teach.
